

Rain Drip-strip

RP67

A drip strip designed to shed or channel water away from the head of exposed doors. Particularly suitable for outward opening doors. The RP67 requires an allowance of 50mm overlap each side of the door opening.

Location: Above doors.

Finish: Satin clear (silver) anodised aluminium (15µm).

Fixing: Screw fix. Zinc plated, cross recess head S.T. screws supplied.

Sizes: Available in stock lengths.

